STATE AGRICULTURAL EXTENSION SERVICE PUBLICATIONS

Includes State Agricultural Extension Service publications received in the library during the preceding month. Articles in Extension periodicals containing more than one article in an issue are listed under subject in the section on Periodical and Serial Literature.

Printed publications issued by the State Agricultural Extension Services are not available from the U. S. Department of Agriculture but are often available from the publishing State Extension Service.

Mimeographed or processed material issued by the State Agricultural Extension Services is not available from the U. S. Department of Agriculture but in some cases may be secured from the publishing institution.

Material not available from the various State institutions may be secured in microfilm or photoprint form from the U. S. Department of Agriculture Library for the cost of reproduction.
